Re: Letter Received May 2, 2007

Dear Mr. Wolff:

I am writing in response to the above-referenced letter. Although I had difficulty understanding the text of your letter, it appears you are attempting to document recent problems you have encountered at the New Hampshire State Prison.

Without commenting on the legal merits of your complaints, I again must reiterate to you that all requests for judicial action must be made by formal pleading and not in letter format. Fed. R. Civ. P. 7; LR 7.1(a); LR 77.6. Thus, because your submission is in letter format, it will not be reviewed or ruled upon by the judge in your case.

If you believe you have a legal and factual basis to request a judge to issue an order granting you some form of relief, you must submit the matter in motion format. The Pro Se Litigant Guide that I sent to you in a prior letter provides detailed instructions to assist you in this regard.

Sincerely,

Daniel J. Lynch
Chief Deputy Clerk
